FROM THE PODIUM

We are so blessed to be performing. We are so blessed to have a live audience. We are so blessed to be back in the beautiful Eisemann Center. WELCOME BACK! There is nothing else like a live performance and live music needs an audience. It is a privilege and pleasure to perform for you today and I hope you are as excited about this concert as we are.

As Artistic Director of the Plano Community Band, it has always been my goal to present a musically engaging and diverse program. From Ron Nelson's adaptation of 16th century music to the fantastic artistry of the Texas Saxophone Quartet, today's program takes you on a journey through a landscape of widely varied musical periods and styles, countries and composers.

Once again, we are thrilled to have you, a live audience, here to be a participant in live music and a part of what we hope to be a meaningful musical experience. WELCOME BACK!

- Joe Frank, Jr.

PLANO COMMUNITY BAND CONDUCTORS

JOE FRANK, JR., Plano Community Band's Artistic Director and Principal Conductor, is a retired music educator and band director with over 35 years of experience working with student and adult musicians in Texas and Georgia. For Joe's full biography, please see our Digital Program.

JIM CARTER, Plano Community Band's Associate Conductor, Business Manager & Event Coordinator, was born in Texas City, Texas, and has made Plano his home since 1969, going through the Plano schools and the band program at Plano Senior High. To keep music in his life, Jim joined the Plano Community Band in 1993 as the baritone saxophone player and became the Band's associate conductor in 1995. For Jim's full biography, please see our Digital Program.

GUEST ARTISTS: TEXAS SAXOPHONE QUARTET

Founded in 1983, the trailblazing Texas Saxophone Quartet shifts effortlessly between classical and jazz – entertaining and educating as they show off the versatility of the saxophone. The TSQ was the first saxophone quartet to win the prestigious Fischoff National Chamber Music Competition in 1988. They have been featured with the U.S. Navy Band and Dallas Symphony Orchestra among many others.

The Quartet is comprised of Don Fabian, David Wright, Chris Beaty, and John Sweeden. For the biographies of each of the performers, please see our Digital Program.

Follow the Texas Saxophone Quartet on Facebook, or visit their website at txsax.com.
