FOND FAREWELL

Conducting the Plano Community Band for the past 10 years has been one of the most wonderful and meaningful experiences of my life. This fantastic musical journey has enriched my life in ways I never imagined. The Plano Community Band has been an incredible blessing and it is difficult to express my depth of gratitude, love and respect for the musicians, audiences, friends and family that have made this journey possible.

To me, being a conductor has always been about the music and the people. It has been about the incredible bond that non-verbal communication brings to the hearts and minds of the conductor, players, and audiences alike in a way no other medium can. It has been about the deep satisfaction of working with diligence and determination to achieve a successful performance, meaningful to audience and players alike. It has also been about the shared friendship and respect among the members of the band. For me, being the conductor of the Plano Community Band has been an incredibly rewarding position.

There are so many to whom I owe so much. I want to thank my wife, Becky, whose love and support has made my time with the PCB possible. I could not have survived my last ten years without Jim Carter, my Associate Conductor, who has been a rock of support, a font of information, a source of musical inspiration, and a wonderful friend throughout my tenure. I want to thank Denise Guilbert and Jennifer Breitzmann, who have been the "glue" that has bonded this organization together, kept me on track and out of trouble, been dear friends, and made possible so many beautiful performances. I also want to thank all the members serving on the Board who have generously given of their time, making all the machinery of the band happen in a way that has been both professional, efficient, and successful.

Every member of the band has been special to me and I will miss you all. The time we have spent together sharing both the demands and the beauty of making music is a treasure I will always carry with me. I can't thank you enough for what you have given me and the band during our time together. I wish you all the best in the future and I know this ensemble will continue to expertly express the beauty and majesty of music to future audiences and to each other.

With Warm Regards, Joe Frank

JENNIFER FRANK-UMANA, Guest Artist, is Associate Principal horn with the Calgary Philharmonic Orchestra. Before joining the Calgary Phil, she was a member of the Portland Symphony Orchestra, and an active freelance musician in the Greater Boston and New England Area, where she was also finishing her graduate studies. For Jennifer's full biography, please see our Digital Program.

JOE FRANK, JR., Plano Community Band's Artistic Director and Principal Conductor, is a retired music educator and band director with over 35 years of experience working with student and adult musicians in Texas and Georgia. For Joe's full biography, please see our Digital Program.

JIM CARTER, Plano Community Band's Associate Conductor, Business Manager & Event Coordinator, was born in Texas City, Texas, and has made Plano his home since 1969, going through the Plano schools and the band program at Plano Senior High. For Jim's full biography, please see our Digital Program.
