FROM THE PODIUM

Welcome to today's concert! It is a joy to gather once again to share music that uplifts, challenges, and connects us. As always, the Plano Community Band thrives on the energy of preparing and performing together, and we are delighted to have you here to experience the culmination of that work. This program represents both artistry and collaboration—moments of quiet reflection balanced with bold musical statements that remind us of the shared human spirit music can reveal.

We are deeply honored to welcome Peter Steiner as today's guest soloist. A native of Italy and an internationally acclaimed trombonist, Steiner has captivated audiences across Europe, Asia, and the Americas with his brilliant tone, effortless technique, and lyrical artistry. His solo career includes collaborations with major orchestras and recitals at many of the world's leading festivals and conservatories. In addition to performing with us this afternoon, Peter will spend Monday working with Plano ISD students in a series of masterclasses—an invaluable opportunity for young musicians to learn from one of the foremost trombone artists of his generation. We are profoundly grateful for his generosity in sharing both his musicianship and his artistry with our community.

Each concert we present is an opportunity to celebrate community—both within the band and with you, our audience. I am inspired by the dedication of these musicians and the generosity of those who come to listen and support live music. Thank you for being here today and for sharing in the joy of this performance. May today's concert leave you with renewed warmth, inspiration, and the quiet conviction that perseverance and passion will always triumph.
